HISTORICAL SKETCH.

IN 1856, when but few families had come to what is now Hyde Park, the pastor of the Baptist Church in Mill Village used to come over and preach at five o'clock, on Sundays, in private houses. The first Sabbath School was organized in A. P. Blake's parlor, with brother L. B. Hanaford as Superintendent. He was succeeded by Mr. Daniel Warren, a Methodist brother. The services werè professedly union.

When the Hartford & Erie Depot was built, the meetings and Sabbath School were transferred to a hall in that building. But the union soon proved to be more nominal than real, so that brother George Pierce personally built a hall, for the use, in part, of a Baptist Church. Meantime the Baptists withdrew from the union meetings and Sabbath School, and commenced worship in brother L. B. Hanaford's parlor. There, on the twenty-third day of September, 1858, the Fairmount Baptist Church (whose name has since then been changed to the First Baptist Church in Hyde Park) was organized; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stone, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith, George Pierce, Georgiana Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. David Higgins, John M. Williams and Lyman B. Hanaford, ten in all, being the constituent members.

September 24, 1858, the new hall was dedicated, Rev. D. C. Eddy, D. D., preaching the sermon. Rev. H. Fittz, Missionary of the Massachusetts Baptist State Convention, engaged to see the pulpit stately supplied for at least one year. That winter, brother W. A. Holland, of Boston, preached most of the time, and did good service. For a considerable time the Baptist was the only meeting held in the village.

Mr. Fittz continued to supply the church with preaching for two years from its organization; in August, 1860, the Church was publicly recognized by a council called for the purpose, and in September, Rev. A. Webster, D. D., editor and publisher of The Christian Era, having become a resident of the village, the church induced him to supply their pulpit. At this time the Church numbered, all told, fifteen members, none of whom possessed much property. During that Autumn and Winter the congregation largely increased, and unusual religious feeling was manifest. Early in the Spring, Rev. A. B. Earle held a short series of meetings here, during which the Spirit descended in great power. The meetings were continued nearly every evening for several weeks. In a population largely transient, not less than fifty persons were hopefully converted. More than twenty of these united with this church, and enlarged greatly its efficiency, as well as its numbers. Others of the converts united with churches elsewhere.

In the midst of this revival, legal notice was served upon us to vacate, within thirty days, the hall in which we worshipped. But before the time designated for us to vacate, God interposed for us, and converted some members of the owner's family, so that he personally requested us to continue our daily meetings and Sabbath worship in the hall. But the church was now led to consider the question of building a Chapel where our present house of worship stands. The land company gave us the land, the architect gave us the plans, our mechanics gave labor, and thus, amid manifold struggles, we erected a Chapel, and dedicated it in the Summer of 1862, at which time Dr. Webster felt compelled by other duties to relinquish the supply of the pulpit.

Early the next Spring the church engaged the services of Rev. G. R. Darrow, as a stated supply. In the Autumn he accepted a call to the pastorate, but resigned March 25th, 1864. It was during this year that the mortgage of $1,600 upon our Chapel was paid—mainly through the energetic efforts of brother T. C. Evans.

After the resignation of Mr. Darrow, students supplied the pulpit until November, when Mr. A. De F. Palmer, a recent graduate from Newton, was engaged to preach for us until the next April. August 6, 1865, the church called to the pastorate Rev. C. A. Skinner, who, after a short term of service, closed his pastorate the first Sabbath in May, 1866.

June 17, 1866, the church extended a call to Rev. W. H. S. Ventres, of Paris, Me., to become our pastor, which he accepted, and entered upon his labors with us in the Autumn. The church then had a membership of 80. The next two years was a season of prosperity. Converts were multiplied, and the congregation outgrew the Chapel's capacity. A larger house became a necessity. But the church and society were still poor.

In the Autumn of 1868 a meeting of the society was called, and a building committee was appointed, consisting of T. C. Evans, A. Webster, Elihu Greenwood, W. F. Badger and C. C. Bradbury. Plans and specifications were presented and approved. The committee were limited to an expenditure of $20,000 for the house, $15,000 of which must be subscribed before any contract be made. When $13,500 had been subscribed, failure seemed inevitable. A motion was made in the committee to abandon the enterprise. Brethren Webster, Evans and Greenwood at length agreed to assume, in addition to their subscriptions, the $1,500 lacking, and the contract was awarded to Messrs. Thompson & Russell, for $18,800, June 12, 1869. Our church lot now being too small, Gordon H. Nott, Esq., generously donated to us on the rear of it about 10,000 feet of land, which gave us ample room for our new edifice.

In June, 1870, Mr. Ventres resigned the pastorate, and closed his labors the following Sabbath.

October 16, 1870, the church called to its pastorate Rev. I. H. Gilbert, of Middletown, Conn., who commenced his labors with us Nov. 20th. On the 30th of that month our new church edifice was dedicated, and then followed a precious work of grace among us. During the next two years our membership considerably more than doubled. Then commenced a season of business revulsion which swept away most of the financial ability of our church and society. Our pastor resigned in the Spring of 1876, and we were compelled to depend upon such pulpit supplies as we could secure until April 1, 1877, when providence opened the way for us to secure the services of our present pastor, Rev. D. C. Eddy, D. D., in whom our church and society are most happily united, and whose labors among us God has signally blessed.

DECLARATION OF FAITH.

I. — OF THE SCRIPTURES.

We believe that the Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired, and is a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction;¹ that it has God for its author, salvation for its end,² and truth without any mixture of error for its matter;³ that it reveals the principles by which God will judge us;⁴ and therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the world, the true centre of Christian union,⁵ and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and opinions should be tried.⁶

II. — OF THE TRUE GOD.

We believe that there is one, and only one, living and true God, an infinite, intelligent Spirit, whose name is JEHOVAH, the Maker and Supreme Ruler of Heaven and Earth;¹ inexpressibly glorious in holiness,² and worthy of all possible honor, confidence and love;³ that in the unity of the Godhead there are three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost;⁴ equal in every divine perfection,⁵ and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption.⁶

III. — OF THE FALL OF MAN.

We believe that Man was created in holiness, under the law of his Maker,¹ but by voluntary transgression fell from that holy and happy state;² in consequence of which all mankind are now sinners,³ not by constraint, but choice;⁴ being by nature utterly void of that holiness required by the law of God, positively inclined to evil; and therefore under just condemnation to eternal ruin,⁵ without defence or excuse.⁶

IV. — OF THE WAY OF SALVATION.

We believe that the salvation of sinners is wholly of grace;¹ through the Mediatorial offices of the Son of God;² who by the appointment of the Father, freely took upon Him our nature, yet without sin;³ honored the Divine law by his personal obedience,⁴ and by his death made a full atonement for our sins;⁵ that having risen from the dead, He is now enthroned in Heaven;⁶ and uniting in His wonderful person the tenderest sympathies with Divine perfections, He is every way qualified to be a suitable, a compassionate, and an all-sufficient Saviour.⁷

V. — OF JUSTIFICATION.

We believe that the great Gospel blessing which Christ¹ secures to such as believe in him is Justification;² that Justification includes the pardon of sin,³ and the promise of eternal life on principles of righteousness;⁴ that it is bestowed, not in consideration of any works of righteousness that we have done, but solely through faith in the Redeemer's blood;⁵ by virtue of which faith His perfect righteousness is freely imputed to us of God;⁶ that it brings us into a state of most blessed peace and favor with God, and secures every other blessing needful for time and eternity.⁷

VI.—OF THE FREENESS OF SALVATION.

We believe that the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the Gospel;¹ that it is the immediate duty of all to accept them by a cordial, penitent and obedient faith;² and that nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner on earth, but his own inherent depravity and voluntary rejection of the Gospel;³ which rejection involves him in an aggravated condemnation.⁴

VII.—OF GRACE IN REGENERATION.

We believe that in order to be saved, sinners must be regenerated, or born again;¹ that regeneration consists in giving a holy disposition to the mind;² that it is effected in a manner above our comprehension by the power of the Holy Spirit, in connection with Divine Truth,³ so as to secure our voluntary obedience to the Gospel;⁴ and that its proper evidence appears in the holy fruits of repentance, and faith, and newness of life.⁵

VIII.—OF REPENTANCE AND FAITH.

We believe that Repentance and Faith are sacred duties, and also inseparable graces, wrought in our souls by the regenerating Spirit of God;¹ whereby being deeply convinced of our guilt, danger and helplessness, and of the way of salvation by Christ,² we turn to God with unfeigned contrition, confession, and supplication for mercy;³ at the same time heartily receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as our Prophet, Priest and King, and relying on Him alone as the only and all-sufficient Saviour.⁴

IX.—OF GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE.

We believe that Election is the eternal purpose of God, according to which he graciously regenerates, sanctifies, and saves sinners;¹ that being perfectly consistent with the free agency of man, it comprehends all the means in connection with the end;² that it is a most glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, being infinitely free, wise, holy and unchangeable;³ that it utterly excludes boasting, and promotes humility, love, prayer, praise, trust in God, and active imitation of His free mercy;⁴ that it encourages the use of means in the highest degree;⁵ that it may be ascertained by its effects in all who truly believe the Gospel;⁶ that it is the foundation of Christian assurance;⁷ and that to ascertain it with regard to ourselves demands and deserves the utmost diligence.⁸

X.—OF SANCTIFICATION.

We believe that sanctification is the process, by which, according to the will of God, we are made partakers of His holiness;¹ that it is a progressive work;² that it is begun in regeneration;³ and that it is carried on in the hearts of believers by the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, the Sealer and Comforter, in the continual use of the appointed means—especially, the word of God, self-examination, self-denial, watchfulness and prayer.⁴

XI.—OF THE PERSEVERANCE OF SAINTS.

We believe that such only are real believers as endure unto the end;¹ that their persevering attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes them from superficial professors;² that a special providence watches over their welfare;³ and they are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.⁴

XII.—OF THE HARMONY OF THE LAW AND THE GOSPEL.

We believe that the Law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of His moral government;¹ that it is holy, just, and good;² and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen man to fulfil its precepts, arises entirely from their love of sin;³ to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator to unfeigned obedience to the holy Law, is one great end of the Gospel, and of the Means of Grace connected with the establishment of the visible church.⁴

XIII.—OF A GOSPEL CHURCH.

We believe that a visible church of Christ is a congregation of baptized believers,¹ associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel;² observing the ordinances of Christ;³ governed by His laws;⁴ and exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His word;⁵ that its only scriptural officers are Bishops or Pastors, and Deacons,⁶ whose qualifications, claims, and duties are defined in the Epistles to Timothy and Titus.

XIV.—OF BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER.

We believe that Christian Baptism is the immersion in water of a believer,¹ into the name of the father, and Son, and Holy Ghost;² to

XV. — OF THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH.

We believe that the first day of the week is the Lord's Day, or the Christian Sabbath;¹ and is to be kept sacred to religious purposes,² by abstaining from all secular labor and sinful recreations;³ by the devout observance of all the means of grace, both private⁴ and public;⁵ and by preparation for that rest which remaineth for the people of God.⁶

XVI. — OF CIVIL GOVERNMENT.

We believe that Civil Government is of Divine appointment, for the interests and good order of human society;¹ and that magistrates are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored, and obeyed;² except only in things opposed to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ,³ who is the only Lord of the conscience, and the Prince of the kings of the earth.⁴

XVII. — OF THE RIGHTEOUS AND THE WICKED.

We believe that there is a radical and essential difference between the righteous and the wicked;¹ that such only as through faith are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and sanctified by the Spirit of our God, are truly righteous in his esteem;² while all such as con-

XVIII.—OF THE WORLD TO COME.

We believe that the end of this world is approaching;¹ that at the Last Day, Christ will descend from Heaven,² and raise the dead from the grave to final retribution;³ that a solemn separation will then take place;⁴ that the wicked will be adjudged to endless punishment, and the righteous to endless joy;⁵ and that this judgment will fix forever the final state of men in heaven or hell, on principles of righteousness.⁶

CHURCH COVENANT.

Having been led, as we believe, by the spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this Church, in knowledge, holiness and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines, to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the Church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offence, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Saviour to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage, that when we remove from this place, we will as soon as possible unite with some other Church, where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.

RULES OF ORDER.

WHEREAS, Every Christian Church must of necessity adopt certain rules and regulations by which its affairs shall be administered; and as the New Testament has prescribed no regulations in detail, we believe that each Church is at liberty to adopt such rules as may seem to it best adapted to accomplish the purpose. We therefore enact the following:

ARTICLE I. — ON ORGANIZATION.

SECTION 1. This Church shall be known as the First Baptist Church of Hyde Park; independent in its polity, and in its plan, organization and general structure shall resemble other Baptist Churches of the United States.

SECTION 2. In all matters of discipline, order, and polity, the New Testament, as held and expounded by the Baptist denomination, shall be authority.

ARTICLE II. — ON MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Any person professing faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, giving evidence of a change of heart, and adopting substantially the views set forth in the Articles of Faith held by us, may become a member by a vote of three-fourths of the members present in Church meeting and voting thereon.

SECTION 2. Any person wishing to unite with the Church by Baptism, shall first make it known to the Pastor, who, if he thinks proper, shall submit the case to the Advisory Committee, and said Committee having examined into the matter, may present the applicant to the Church, at any Wednesday evening meeting, or regular Covenant meeting, action being taken thereon, after his or her experience shall have been related.

SECTION 3. — Members of other Churches of the same faith and order, may be received into the fellowship of this Church, by letters of dismission, and recommendation from their respective churches, but all applications for membership by letter shall first be submitted to the Advisory Committee, and if favorably reported, shall then be submitted to the Church for action.

SECTION 4. Those who have once been members of Baptist Churches, and in consequence of any peculiar circumstances have no regular letters of admission, may be received into the fellowship of this Church by giving satisfactory evidence of a change of heart, Christian conduct, and scriptural faith.

SECTION 5. Excluded members may be restored again to membership, by confession of their errors and giving evidence of repentance.

ARTICLE III. — ON MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. Meetings of the Church for business shall be held on the Tuesday preceding the first Sabbath in each month. At the meeting preceding the first Sunday in October, the annual business shall be transacted. All special meetings shall be called by the Pastor or Deacons.

SECTION 2. The following order shall be observed at every regular business meeting:

1. Devotional Exercises.
2. Reading the Records of the last meeting.
3. Unfinished Business.
4. Report of the Advisory Committee.
5. Reports of Special Committees.
6. New Business.
7. Closing Devotional Exercises.

SECTION 3. Meetings for religious worship shall be maintained on the Sabbath, and at such other times and in such manner as the Church may deem best for its spiritual interest and the glory of God.

SECTION 4. In all meetings for the transaction of business, the pastor of the Church, or in his absence any brother on whom the Church may call, shall act as Moderator.

SECTION 5. In all business discussions the usual rules of parliamentary debate shall be observed.

SECTION 6. Nine members shall constitute a quorum at any regular meeting of the Church for the transaction of business. A less number may adjourn.

ARTICLE IV. — ON OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The Officers of this Church shall be:

1. A Pastor.
2. Five Deacons, who shall take precedence in the order of their election.
3. A Clerk.
4. A Treasurer.
5. An Advisory Committee of three persons (exclusive of Pastor, Deacons and Clerk, who shall be members ex-officio).

These officers shall be elected by ballot unless otherwise ordered.

SECTION 2. When the election of a pastor shall become necessary, the Church shall, without unnecessary delay, invite to its pastorate some minister of good report. An invitation to the pastoral office, in order to be valid, shall have the vote of three-fourths of the members present at a meeting duly and expressly notified for the election of a pastor. It shall be the duty of the pastor to preach the gospel, administer the ordinances, and to perform the various duties incumbent on his office, as one that watches for souls, and as overseer of the flock of God.

SECTION 3. The Deacons shall be elected for five years, one being chosen annually. Three-fourths of the votes cast, at a meeting duly notified for the purpose, shall be necessary for a choice. A Deacon shall not be eligible for reelection at the time his term expires, but may be at any subsequent annual meeting. It shall be the duty of the Deacons to search after such members of the Church as may need pecuniary assistance, and use the alms of the Church for their relief; to prepare and distribute the elements of the Lord's Supper, and otherwise assist the Pastor in the performance of his duties.

SECTION 4. The Clerk and Treasurer shall be elected annually: their duties shall be such as usually pertain to such offices, and they shall be responsible to the Church for the performance of their duties.

ARTICLE V. — ON COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1. The Advisory Committee shall examine all candidates for baptism, keep a general oversight of the affairs of the Church, suggest, from time to time, ways and means for increasing the efficiency of the body, and to it shall be submitted all cases of discipline, before they are presented in open church meeting.

SECTION 2. The Advisory Committee shall hold office three years, one member being elected annually. The retiring member shall not be eligible to reelection at the time his term of office expires, but may be at any subsequent election.

SECTION 3. Committees on Benevolence, on Pulpit supplies, on Baptismal services, for Auditing accounts, or any other purpose, may be appointed at such times as the Church may choose.

SECTION 4. Special Committees shall be appointed by the Moderator, unless otherwise ordered.

ARTICLE VI. — ON DISCIPLINE.

SECTION 1. If a grievance exists between members of the Church, either of the aggrieved parties may bring the matter to the notice of the Advisory Committee, only after an unsuccessful employment of the means of reconciliation presented in the Gospel of Matthew, chapter xviii., 15th and 16th verses.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the Committee to give the case a careful and impartial hearing, and endeavor, if possible, to remove the cause of complaint, without bringing it before the Church; but if this be impossible, they shall report the case to the Church, stating such facts as shall be needful for its action.

SECTION 3. When a member of the Church is accused before the Committee of any immorality, for which he would be liable to public censure or exclusion, it shall be the duty of the Committee immediately to give notice of such accusation to the person accused, and to enter at once upon the investigation of the case. If the investigation shall result in favor of the accused, or if the person offending remove the cause of grief, and the case does not require public notice, the Committee shall make no report of it to the Church.

SECTION 4. Penitence and confession shall always be accepted; and when they are seen to be real, it shall be the duty of the Church to forgive, as its members hope to be forgiven.

SECTION 5. Members walking disorderly, holding doctrines contrary to the Gospel, or refusing to submit to the judgment of the Church, become subjects of discipline.

SECTION 6. It is expected that every member of this Church who shall remove permanently from the town, will connect himself or herself, by dismission from us, with some church in our fellowship, within the space of one year. In case any member shall not comply with this regulation, it shall be the duty of the Clerk, at the expiration of one year, to remind such person of this regulation of the Church. If, within a year following, such member neither complies with the rule nor gives good reason for not complying, he or she shall be held subject to Church discipline.

ARTICLE VII. — ON DISMISSION OF MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. Any member in good standing shall be entitled to a dismission to any Church with which this Church is in fellowship, provided such member can be within its care and oversight.

SECTION 2. Applications for dismission must be made to the Pastor or Deacons, and by them, if there be no objection, reported to the Church.

SECTION 3. When a member has received a letter of dismission to another Church, it shall be his duty, without unnecessary delay, to present it to that Church. No letter of dismission, without special reason, shall be considered valid for a longer time than six months.

SECTION 4. The names of those members who have been absent one or more years, of whom no satisfactory information is had, shall be read at each annual meeting, that such action thereon may be taken as the facts presented may warrant.

SECTION 5. To persons wishing to unite with Baptist Churches, the following letter shall be given:

THIS CERTIFIES that..... is a member, in good standing, of the first Baptist Church, in Hyde Park, and in compliance with own request, is affectionately recommended and dismissed to your fellowship. If notified within six months of union with you, we shall consider..... as dismissed from us; otherwise this letter shall be null and void.

In behalf of the Church: Clerk.

SECTION 6. When any member wishes a letter of occasional communion, it may be given by the Pastor, or in his absence, the Clerk, in the following form:

THIS MAY CERTIFY that the bearer..... is a member of the First Baptist Church, in Hyde Park, in regular standing, and as such is affectionately commended to the watchful care and communion of any sister Church where Providence may cast..... let.

This letter continues valid for one year only from date.

SECTION 7. The following form of letter shall be used when members in good standing as respects Christian character, wish to withdraw from us and unite with Evangelical Christians, not Baptist:

THIS CERTIFIES that..... is a member of the First Baptist Church, Hyde Park, and sustains a good Christian character; but wishing to unite with another body of Christians..... is permitted to withdraw from us for that purpose; and when we are informed that has so united self with others, connection with this Church will be dissolved.

This Certificate shall be null and void if not used for this purpose within three months.

ARTICLE VIII. — ON BENEVOLENCE.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the members to contribute regularly for the support of the Gospel, and for general benevolence.

SECTION 2. At the commencement of each Church year, the Church shall appoint collectors to canvass the congregation and procure subscriptions for the following objects:

Foreign Missions.
Home Missions.
Education.
State Convention.

Collections for these and other objects may be taken up as often as the Advisory Committee may deem best.

SECTION 3. The Deacons shall distribute the poor funds of the Church to the needy of our own number.

ARTICLE IX.—ON AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1. These By-Laws may be amended at any annual meeting—notice having been given in writing at any previous Church meeting.

SECTION 2. These By-Laws may be temporarily suspended, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present at any Church meeting, and voting thereon.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

CONNECTED WITH THIS CHURCH IS ORGANIZED UNDER

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1. This School shall be known as the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church, of Hyde Park.

ARTICLE 2. The Annual meeting shall be held on the Tuesday evening following the last Sunday of September, unless otherwise ordered; at which time the officers shall be chosen by ballot. The teachers, and scholars fifteen years of age and upwards, shall have the privilege of voting on all questions.

ARTICLE 3. The officers shall consist of a Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian, and a Standing Committee of seven persons, who, with the other officers, shall constitute a Board of Managers, with power to fill all vacancies.

ARTICLE 4. The officers chosen as specified, shall, together with the list of teachers, be presented immediately after the annual meeting, to the Church for confirmation or rejection, and read to the School in open session.

ARTICLE 5. The Superintendent, and in his absence the Assistant Superintendent, shall have charge and direction of the School, and in all matters shall act with the approval of the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE 6. The Secretary shall keep a record of all business, the names of officers, teachers and scholars, the attendance each Sabbath, and read a monthly report at each Sunday School Concert.

ARTICLE 7. The Treasurer shall have charge of all monies collected, and pay all bills authorized by the Chairman of the Standing Committee, and make a report at each Sunday School Concert, of the amount contributed.

ARTICLE 8. The Librarian shall have charge of all books belonging to the School, and keep the same in good order, subject to the direction of the Managers.

ARTICLE 9. It shall be the duty of any teacher intending to be absent from the School even for a single Sabbath, to provide a substitute, or if not able to do so, report the intended absence to the Superintendent as early as possible.

ARTICLE 10. A Quarterly Meeting of the officers and teachers shall be held on the first Tuesday evening of January, April, July, and October, at which each teacher shall report the condition of his or her class.

ARTICLE 11. This Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting of the School, by a vote of two thirds present and voting thereon.
